

Robert E. Coleman

Associate

Robert E. Coleman is an Associate in the Design Professionals Defense & Counseling Group, primarily representing and counseling architects and engineers. Mr. Coleman has represented design professionals, contractors, and owners, in a wide range of projects including public works, transportation projects, and commercial and residential projects. Mr. Coleman also has significant experience with mechanics liens, construction defect, land use, and personal injury law.

Mr. Coleman prides himself in being an effective advocate for his clients utilizing discovery, negotiation, and motion work in advancing his client's position, defenses, and strategies. He has been successful on many occasions in obtaining pertinent evidence and drafting winning motions that have minimized claims for damages made against his clients.
